

The image captures James Bate and his companion inside the Forestry Building. The interior features an industrial scale and steel industrial racking, plastic drying trays (approximately 20 per stack).

Notably, there is no evidence of any domestic or household equipment.