Thank you for your email received and letting us know .
We NEVER gave permission for such access.
What is the next step for this case , as soon as we never gave permission for such access?
Is Council taking any legal actions for this case, ?

Thank you in advance

Dear Maria Mourtzi

I am writing regard the council's investigation on land adjacent to yours at Fairham Brook Lane Bunny.

Access has been created between bow topped railings which form the current boundary between you land and the adjacent agricultural land to allow access between your land and the adjacent land. The owner of the adjacent land has suggested that you have provided verbal agreement for this to take place in order for the adjacent land owner to graze sheep on your land and that this will be formalised with a written agreement.

Are you able to confirm that you have given permission for the owner of the adjacent land to create an access to your land to graze sheep?

Kind regards

Peter Muter
