Dear Charlotte,

I would like to make official complaint about:

- inaccurate information about procedures or planning law
- misleading advice in advance of making an application, or
- inadequate response to correspondence about your development proposals before an application is determined.

Could you provide me with details who I should contact, please?

Kind Regards

Dr Julita Geary

Dear Dr.Geary

You will not be able to submit an appeal to the planning inspectorate as the applications are not technically a valid applications. I have arranged with our administration team to return the application fees and files to you and this will be processed in due course. If you still wish to make a compliant, you are able to follow the complaints procedure that I have already sent to you.

If you require anything else, please let me know.

Hello Charlotte again,

I noticed that I can not find any of my applications on line filed and any of documents , even if historical approved over a year ago (bridge) but also I can not see Enforcement Notice about my Health and Welfare Twin Unit caravan ?

I already filled appeal.

Obviesly I can not see also resent hardstanding and privet way applications too.

Could you explain what's going on, please?

Kind Regards

Dr Julita Geary
